MISS ALICE ABBOT ENGAGED.

Announcement at Luncheon Giver for Her at Sherry's.

One of the debutante entertainments of yesterday was given by Mrs. Harry Stephens Abbot for her daughter Miss Alice Louise Abbot, for whom many dinners and dances had been planned early in the season but which had to be postponed owing to mourning. Mrs. Abbot invited many of the young friends of her daughter to take lunchcon at Sherry's, and at it was an nounced Miss Abbot's engagement to Clive Burlingame Meredith of Cambridge, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meredith of Cazenovia, N. V. Miss Abbot, who is an only child, is a granddaughter of William A. Loney of Pelham Manor, formerly of Baltimore, and she is a niece of Mrs. Frederick Roosevelt and of Mrs. G. Bruce Brown. Mr. Meredith is a grandson of the late Anay to the attic and rummage and trunks? What joy it was to those mystic and magical s of the past, to identify, permane brounded gown in which there attended the ball at the place in the autumn an undergraduate at Harvard.

The guests at the luncheon were the Misses Ada Bryce Gray, Marie Pou-dansen, Priscilla Bull, Phoebe Randall 'aramai Carroll, Hazel Symi thy Duncan, Katherine Seymour, Eliza-beth Eyre, Eleanor Taylor, Vieva Fisher, Margaret Trevor, Elise Francke, Elizabeth Tyson, Marion Hoyle, Elizabeth R. Another engagement recently an-nounced is that of Miss Julia Newbold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newdaughter of Mr and Mrs. Thomas Newboom of 289 Madison avenue, to Redmond Cross of this city. Miss Newbold was introduced to society two years ago. She is a granddaughter of Thomas Jefferson Coolidge of Boston, Mr. Cross is a son of Mr. and Mrs R. James Cross, for many years identified with the Washington Square section of this city, now living at 405 Park avenue. Mr. Cross was gradulated from Yale in 1896. Miss Newbold is a cousin of Miss Eleanera Sears of Boston. No date has been set for the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. DE KOVEN'S PARTY Elizabethan Pageant To-night Will

Have Novel Features. clety is greatly interested in the costume party to be given to-night at their new home, 1025 Fark avenue, by Mr. and Mrs Reginald de Koven. It will be an Elizabethan fete and will ollow several dinners.

While most of the guests will wear sextumes of the sixteenth century some will appear in those of other periods, but none later than the eighteenth century. Dinners will be given in advance of the party by Mrs. W. Bourke Cockran, who will entertain sixty at the Ritz-Cariton:
Mrs. Carl de Gersdorff. Miss Louise Iselin.
Mrs. Archer M. Huntington, Mrs. Joseph stickney, Mrs. Malcolm Whitman and Mrs. Oliver G. Jennings.

When the guests from these dinner and others arrive at the home of Mr and Mrs. de Koven they will be enter-tained by an Elizabethan pageant with sticity itself. It is the old tale of two dances and songs of that period. There will be a quadrille danced by Mr. and Mrs. Kierstede Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Antoinette's toy dairy at the Trianon. Jr., B. Burgess Moore and Henry Ives Cobb, Jr., all of whom will wear gorgeous costumes of the period.

Supper will be served in the Gothic gallery at one long table and the viands will include those in favor at the court of Queen Elizabeth. There will be char-acteristic music by the minnesingers under the direction of Kurt Schindler, and another diversion will be the dancing of

An innovation at this party will be the installation of a temporary atelier, for the first time in this country, when photographs in color will be made of the guests in their costumes, by Gervals courtellmont of Paris, whose photographs ferences of Andre de Fouquieres. In Paris ast summer similar photographs were nade at the famous Persian fete given by the Countess de Clermont-Tonnerre. After the pageant there will be general

DANCING NEVER CEASES

Estimated That $16,000 Will Be Cleared for Nursery and Hospital.

The annual charity ball in aid of the New York Nursery and Child's Hospital attracted last night to the Waldorf-Astoria several thousand people and the ball, which has been of annual occurrence since 1857, with the exception of the period of the civil war, showed again that it has a firm hold in the affection of society.

There was everything in the way of music to make the night gay, as there and Rosenberger's, playing in the grand party, followed by supper and dancing ballroom, the Astor gallery and east room, and at no time was there any Fields Theatre to see 'The Man With cessation of dancing. Moreover, there was plenty of room for all.

According to the fixed custom, the ball was opened by the grand march vor. Marion Cannon, Elizabeth R. in which participated members of the Thompson, Clara Fargo, Ruth Moller, floor committee, the board of directors Elsie Park, Kate Gordon Willis, Fon-
